A special message for Scotland

from Scotland for Marriage.

“As you know, the Coalition for Marriage exists to defend the definition of marriage throughout the whole of the UK. But you may not know that a similar, separate organisation - Scotland for Marriage - is doing related work specifically in Scotland.

We would encourage you to support both organisations. If you have not already done so, please add your name to the Scotland for Marriage petition online at scotlandformarriage.org

By signing both petitions, you can show support for marriage specifically in Scotland and also across the whole of the UK. If England and Wales redefine marriage, the pressure on Scotland will increase considerably.

Marriage is older than the Act of Union. It is older than Scotland. It is older than England. It is older than the hills. Politicians - in Edinburgh or London - have no right to meddle with it. Please show your support. Thank you.”
